The Chapel,
Royal Hospital, Chelsea.

LL13231

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

The Royal Hospital, Chelsea, a hostel or guest house for worthy veterans of the Army, who are prevented by old age, or disabilities contracted in the field, from earning a livelihood. Designed by and built under the supervision of Wren.

Chapel. Panelled in oak. Carving by W. Emmett, Court Carver to King Charles II. Fresco at East End by Sebastian Ricci. A number of French, American, and other standards hang from the walls.

Copyright. London
Printed in England
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Postcard

CTPA12.9